Laban Guild Youth Dance Programme
Dancing into the Future
Presents...

INSPIRE, CREATE, PERFORM, SHINE!

Would you like to take part in a lively and creative day of dance inspired by Rudolf Laban?
Expand your horizons, develop your skills and just enjoy DANCING?

Join us at the Laban Guild Summer School 2019 for a Day of Dance for Young People aged 14 to 17. All will be welcome from Year 9 upwards, including those studying GCSE/A Level Dance, Performing Arts and anyone with a passion for dance. The day will include the opportunity to take part in an informal sharing of work created with the rest of the group.

Please note: Teachers/Parents will be required to accompany groups. There will be provision for individual students to attend unaccompanied. We have a maximum of 25 places available. Places are FREE and will include a tee-shirt.
BOOK NOW! (For booking see overleaf)

The day will be led by two highly qualified teachers (Enhanced DBS) with extensive experience of Laban based work, Performance, Youth Dance and Dance in Education.

Cathy Washbrooke – Laban Guild Youth Dance Tutor, BA (Hons) Dance Theatre, MA Dance Making, MA Education, PGCE (QTS) in Dance, Laban Guild Tutor Certificate (Phoenix Project)

Rhyan Parry – Laban Guild Youth Dance Tutor, BA (Hons) Sports Studies, PGCE Physical Education, IDTA Associate, Laban Guild Community Dance Leader- Stages 1 & 2
